

Session Two
Launching a Lesson or Task
Task: Pool Border Problem

Find the number of one-by-one tiles required to surround a five-by-five pool. Find a rule to predict the number of tiles required to surround a square pool of any size. See if you can express that rule as an equation. Be prepared to explain how your equation relates to the pool and border.